AMISH PARADISE by Weird al Yankovic

A : circle the right one

As I walk/ talk through the valley where I harvest my grain
I take a look at my life/ wife and realize she's very plain
But that's just prefect/perfect for an Amish like me
You know, I shun fancy things like electricity/trigonometry
At 4:30 / 5:30 in the evening/morning I'm milking cows
Jebediah feeds/cooks the chickens/Dickens and Jacob plows, fool !
And I've been dancing/milking and plowing' so long
That even Ezekiel thinks that my man/mind is gone
I'm a woman/man of the land, I'm into discipline/disgusting
Got a Bible/title in my hand/band and a beer/beard on my chin
But if I vanish/finish all of my chores and you vanish/finish thine
Then good night/tonight we're wanna/gonna party like in 1699
